City of Woodbury Housing and Redevelopment Authority
SUBORDINATION POLICY

In the event that a borrower refinances their superior mortgage debt, the HRA will agree to subordinate its loan(s) only upon the conditions listed below.

POLICY

I. Allowance of Subordination

The HRA will allow its loans to be subordinated if:

- 1. The borrower is refinancing an existing and superior mortgage debt for the sole purpose of reducing the interest rate on said superior debt. In this case the borrower shall not receive cash back as part of the transaction (with the exception of the amount needed to pay closing fees); or
2. The borrower is refinancing an existing superior mortgage debt for the purpose of reinvesting in their property new capital improvements that will increase the value of the property to the level of the cost of the improvement. In this case the borrower shall be allowed to receive cash back as part of the transaction as long as the combined loan to value (CLTV) consists of the proposed financing plus the current balances due on all liens against the property not exceeding 110 percent. A copy of the construction contract for the improvement will be supplied to the City.

II. Miscellaneous Underwriting Requirements

In addition to the policy requirements set forth in Section 1 above, for the HRA to allow its loan to be subordinated, the following requirements must be met:

- 1. Loan payments to the HRA must be current and shall have been timely made within the past 12 months;
2. There shall be no delinquent property taxes on the parcel secured by the HRA loan;
3. The borrower shall not have filed for bankruptcy after receiving the HRA's loans;
4. The subordination will be to the first mortgage only.

III. Fees

The HRA shall not charge a fee to allow eligible borrowers to subordinate an HRA loan. Any fees or costs incurred in the subordination process must either be borne by the borrower or rolled into the new first mortgage financing.

IV. Authority to Subordinate

If the policy requirements set forth above are met, any one of the following HRA officers shall be allowed to sign a subordination agreement as approved to form by the City Attorney's Office: HRA Chair; HRA Vice Chair; HRA Secretary; HRA Executive Director; HRA Clerk; HRA Treasurer.

V. Interpretation

Any questions of interpretation of this policy shall be decided by the Executive Director.

I certify that I have read and understand this subordination policy.
